Instructions for Beneficiary Designations

- 1. If no beneficiary is named, the proceeds will be paid according to applicable law.
- 2. If a beneficiary is to be designated as irrevocable, that must be specified next to the beneficiary's name. If the beneficiary designation is specified as irrevocable, the signature of the irrevocable beneficiary is required to make any future beneficiary changes or withdrawals. If the current beneficiary is designated irrevocable, the beneficiary change will not be effective unless the irrevocable beneficiary releases their interest as a beneficiary.
- 3. Where Quebec law applies, designation of the owner's spouse (married or civil Union) is irrevocable unless the owner stipulated the designation to be revocable.
- 4. If a trust is designated for a minor beneficiary, the proceeds will be paid to the trustee as long as the beneficiary is a minor. Once the minor beneficiary reaches the age of majority, the proceeds will be paid directly to the beneficiary according to applicable law. This does not apply in Quebec.
- 5. If a trust is designated as a beneficiary, ensure the full and complete name of the trust is listed.
- 6. List names of children individually instead of "All my children" to avoid delay in receiving proceeds at time of claim.
