

David Hutchison

Director of Sales, Insurance

After a 2-year stint as a sports broadcaster covering the Ontario Hockey League and local sporting events in the Kitchener-Waterloo, Guelph and surrounding areas, David re-entered the industry in October 2009 joining Foresters Financial. After a year of learning the ropes, his career as a wholesaler began with an affinity for working directly with people while making service and accessibility a priority. In February of 2021, David joined Equitable Life partnering with advisors to help grow their business through the unique value proposition and product lineup that Equitable provides. Also known as Hutch, David enjoys playing hockey, golf (not well) and traveling to various sporting events in his spare time.
