

Cindy Shirley

Underwriting and Claims Vice President

Cindy brings a wealth of underwriting knowledge to her work at Equitable, with over 20 years of experience in risk selection within the Canadian individual life insurance sector. She has an impressive background in individual and data-driven underwriting.

Cindy's passion for underwriting is contagious and she's here to support you – our valued advisors – and our clients. Her exceptional leadership is complemented by her expertise in both high-volume underwriting and the customized large-case market.